LOVING ITEMS

Elder Palmore of Carlsbad preached two good sermons Sunday and baptized Mr. Welch in the river near Eugene Donaldson's. Quite a large crowd attended all the services.

Eugene Blalock, one of our boys who accompanied his father to Cal., writes they reached Hanford, Saturday, they had a fine trip, he says that it is a fine town and country, they are all delighted.

Our school closes next week, with two entertainments, one Thursday night and one Friday. The programs for both evenings are made up of good talent and we anticipate a treat.

Rev Blalock visited his wife and sons a couple of days before going to California to spend the summer.

Madaga school closes May 14th with a picnic.

Quite a few applicants are wanting the Loving school.

Nellie Smith was sick Wednesday.

Mrs. Welch and Mrs. Neal drove to Carlsbad Tuesday.

"Dot" Smith wears a sad expression that won't come off. Never mind, "Dot," Chicago is no a great way off.

The Sunday School, aided by the school board will purchase a new organ. This is much needed.

Butler, the photographer, took some fine pictures of our school Tuesday.

Carl Smith believes in Loving and her future - he will send off a dozen or so pictures of our fine school.

Mrs. Smith visited school Tuesday.

Mrs. Blalock has a tent and a lot of household goods for sale.

Mr. W. E. Ball is still in Colorado.

Farmers are busy plowing and planting.

Sixteen dry land claims have been staked in Ky., Tenn., and Mo. people.

Mr. Word, of Carlsbad, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Joe Welch.

Joe Welch spent a day at home recently. He says cattle are dying rapidly and that if it don't soon rain the loss will be heavy.

The Methodists will begin a series of meetings soon.

Mrs. Blalock will visit Kansas City and her home in Mo., before joining her husband and sons in California.
